There was no discussion. The motion was unanimously approved.

Review and approve / disapprove the May Financial Statement

The May Financial Statement was sent out via e-mail by Brenda Hester. A motion to approve the financial statement was made and seconded. There was no discussion. The motion was unanimously approved.

Speaker

Jaime Correa, from Lonestar Handgun Range, spoke to us. He formerly was in the Army - Law Enforcement.

He spoke to us about handguns from the civilian point of view.

He gave us a great deal of tips on the usages of open and concealed carry.

Jaime also stressed many the legal matters that would be encountered after a shooting.

Prices at Lonestar Range are as follows:

Class:

$79.95

$69.95 – Veterans

Fingerprints:

$10.27

State of TX, license to carry application:

$40.00

$25.00 – Honorable discharge

$ 0.00 – Active duty, National Guard, Reserves

More information is available at: lonestarhandgun.com

There was a question and answer period. The members thanked Jaime for the information.

Old Business

Gun Raffle

Tom Ingle reported that raffle tickets totaling close to $7000 have been sold. There are three more weeks in which to sell the rest of the tickets. Gary Reichle and Dan Hancock have helped sell tickets. Other volunteers are very welcome.

Business Memberships

Tom Ingle stated that the letters asking businesses to support the UCPD through the Alumni have resulted in about $2000 in donations so far.

2018 Citizens Police Academy Class

The graduation dinner for the 2018 Citizens Police Academy was at Dragon Lake restaurant. A good time was had by all. Several officers were in attendance.

UCPD Support

Blue ribbons on trees and free dinners for the whole month of May for officers and their families were just two of the ways that the members showed their appreciation, especially during National Police Week. The police expressed their appreciation.

UCCPAAA Items for Sale

Mary Flack showed the members some of the items that can be purchased through her. She showed shirts that were available to buy. There are also other items that can be obtained.

See list at end of the minutes.

Payment in the form of credit card has been approved for the above items, as well as dues and gun raffle tickets.

For cold weather clothing, you can go online to "Lands End" and click on the school catalog and then look for the adult sizes. Our green color is Evergreen in the school catalog. Right now, items are on sale. After purchase, contact Mary for embroidery.

You can also purchase something at a local store that is evergreen in color and contact Mary for embroidery on these items as well.

See Mary at the meeting for your free lanyard for your name badge.

Project Leader Helpers

Our programs need coordinators and volunteers to help them. Safety Patrol and Children's Fingerprinting need coordinators. Buying Snacks also needs volunteers.

Other Old Business

Paul Najarian explained the duties of the Safety Patrol. Mainly, it is to augment the police at city-sponsored events.

New Business

Veterans Day Parade

Doug Smith, program director for the parade, gave us an overview of times, activities that need volunteers, etc.

Participants should be on UC Boulevard across from the Fire Department at 10:00. He needs:

Three volunteers to drive their vehicles in the parade

Safety officers to direct traffic

Marchers to distribute mini – flags and perhaps candy

UCCPAAA banner carriers

Vehicle decorators

He will be sending around a sign-up sheet.

Other New Business

Tom Ingle reported that telephone calls that come in for UCCPAAA don't have to be monitored in person anymore. He has set it up so that calls will go to our website and they will be forwarded to the appropriate person.

Dan Hancock will be sending out a new roster to include new members.

Carole Meyer asked for volunteers to help with National Night Out(NNO). It will be held on Oct. 2.

Members are needed to:

Work on banners

Take NNO information to apartment managers

Safety Patrol

Children's Finger printers

Take care of goodies for the kids at the Kick-off, which is Sept. 29

She encouraged everyone to participate in NNO with snacks, etc. for the neighbors.

The Kick-off will be at UC Park. There will be an Air-Life helicopter, along with other emergency vehicles.

Tell all your neighbors!

Police Report – Sergeant Dan Carmona

Sergeant Carmona gave us interesting details on the following:

Injury to a child

Rape case

Runaways

Drugs

HEB issues

Walmart issues

There was a question and answer period. The members thanked Dan.

Next Meeting

The next meeting will be on July 18, 2018 at the Public Works building.

Adjournment

At 8:14 PM, a motion to adjourn was made and seconded. There was no discussion and the motion passed unanimously.
